Sponsorship opportunities

A week-long site-wide sponsorship of grahamcluley.com is available. There is only one slot available per week.

The sponsorship promotion is displayed as a text-based link on every single page of the website, including the main page, for the entire week – linking to the sponsor’s website or specific promotion.

Example of sponsorship promotion on main website

In our experience, using a text-based link rather than a graphical banner is preferable as it not likely to be filtered by ad blockers.

The sponsor promotion is equally prominent on mobile devices.

We are happy to advise on what wording we believe would be most successful for your promotion.

In addition, the weekly sponsor receives an item in the site's RSS feed (with text that can either be boilerplate copy or something Graham writes for you), an item written by Graham and posted to the full site at the end of the week, an item in GCHQ (Graham Cluley's Security Newsletter) sent to over 17,000 subscribers, and a tweet thanking the sponsor from Graham's personal Twitter account (currently over 110,000 followers), Mastodon account (8,000+ followers), and LinkedIn (17,000+ followers).

The header of the Graham Cluley website features the name 'Graham Cluley' in a large, bold, white font on a dark blue background. Below the name is the tagline 'Computer security news, advice, and opinion' in a smaller white font. To the right of the name are navigation links: 'News', 'Newsletter', 'Podcast', 'Speaking', 'Sponsor', and 'About'. A search bar with the placeholder text 'Search ...' and a magnifying glass icon is positioned on the right side of the header.

Many thanks to the great folks at Immersive Labs, who have sponsored my writing for the past week.

Attacks and breaches are a fact of life. They happen. What's most important is how well your organisation responds. And technology isn't enough. Your staff must be ready too.

The sidebar features a 'PODCAST' section. At the top, it says 'PODCAST' in white on a dark blue background. Below that is the title '"Smashing Security"' in purple, next to a logo for 'SMASHING SECURITY' which shows a laptop and a microphone. Underneath, it says 'Winner: Best Security Podcast 2018, 2019'. The 'LATEST EPISODE:' section lists '195: "Selene Delgado Lopez is not your friend"' with a date of 'Sep 10 2020'. A short description follows: 'The Gadget Show's Jon Bentley joins us to discuss the mystery of a Facebook friend you never requested, software updates for the Mercedes S-Class, and risks in the online classroom.' Below this is a playback control bar with a play button, a progress bar at 0:00, and a volume icon. At the bottom, there is a link 'More info and show notes.' and a 'Subscribe:' section with links for 'Apple Podcasts' and 'Google'.
